PROCEDURE

- A. Inmate and CCAP probationer/parolee visitation are a privilege. The Facility Unit Head may restrict an individual's visiting privileges, when necessary, to ensure the security and good order of the facility. (2-CO-5D-01)
- B. Visitation programs must not allow for the discrimination of an inmate, CCAP probationer/parolee, or their visitors, based on their disability, in the provision of facility services, programs, and activities administered through the visitation program. (5-ACI-5E-02)
 - 1. Staff must provide reasonable accommodations that allow disabled visitors to participate in a facility's visitation program.
 - 2. Staff must provide reasonable accommodations that allow inmates and CCAP probationers/with communication disabilities to communicate effectively with their visitor.
 - 3. Facility search areas should be equipped with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliant pull up bars to assist in the transfer of a visitor into and out of a DOC-owned wheelchair. DOC staff may assist in the transfer but must not lift the visitor.
 - 4. With prior approval of the Facility Unit Head, staff will allow visitors to use their service or guide dog during visitation.

- 3. Each institution has an area for contact visiting and, if necessary, a visiting area for non-contact visiting: (5-ACI-2E-03, 5-ACI-7D-16)
 - a. Contact visiting areas permit informal communication and provides the opportunity for physical contact.
 - b. Non-contact visitation areas do not permit physical contact and are for use in instances of a substantiated security risk only.

- 5. Each institution provides a space for the proper storage of visitors' coats, handbags, and other personal items not allowed into the visiting area. (5-ACI-2E-03)
- 6. Staff will provide inmates and their visitor(s) with written information on the institution's visitation program; see Attachment 1, Inmate Visitor Information Brochure Guidelines.
- 7. Within twenty-four hours of arrival to any institution for reception or transfer, staff must provide each inmate with a copy of the institution specific Inmate Visitor Information Brochure; see Attachment 2, Inmate Visitor Information Brochure. Additional copies of the Brochure must be made available, upon request, for an inmate to send to their visitors by mail. (5-ACI-7D-15)
